War Stories

Artist Presentation by Mary King

Co-Sponsored by the Gender and Women's Studies Program of the University of Illinois at Chicago

Friday, October 21, 6–8 p.m. - Free

Please join us for a presentation by artist Mary King who will discuss works in her solo exhibition, "War Stories." In order to create this body of work, the artist Mary King interviewed war veterans in Nebraska and Chicago. Her paintings depict the emotional aspects of war memories with emphasis on World Wars I and II and the Iraq War.

Mary King is a professional artist and educator with a BFA from the University of Chicago and an MFA from Western Michigan University. She has had four solo shows at Denise Bibro Fine Arts in New York, two of which were reviewed by The New York Times. She is currently represented by Sherry Washington Gallery in Detroit. Her work is in collections, including Western Michigan University and Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Michigan. She has been selected for an artist residency in 2012 at the Vermont Studio Center. For more information see www.marykingart.com.

The Artist Presentation is generously co-sponsored by the Gender and Women's Studies Program of the University of Illinois at Chicago. The exhibitions on display are 'War Stories' along with the group show 'The Project', and 'All That Also Means to See', a solo show by Maria Gaspar, through October 27, 2011.
