Ulli Rooney

Solo Exhibition at Woman Made Gallery

Nov. 4 – Dec. 22, 2011 / Opening Reception: Nov. 4, 6–9 p.m.

CHICAGO — Woman Made Gallery (WGM) presents a solo show with select paintings by Ulli Rooney.

Originally from Riga, Latvia, Ulli Rooney currently lives and works in the Chicago area. She earned her art degree in 1961 in Munich, Germany. Rooney has exhibited her work in numerous group and solo shows throughout the United States and overseas. She was awarded two Illinois Arts Council Artists Fellowships, a Studio Residency in Stuttgart, Germany, and an Academic Exchange Service Fellowship to Paris, France.

Rooney's layered glossy paintings are about color, color pairing and the interaction between calligraphy and color field. Using a square format she employs oil enamels and works up the surface over the course of several painting sessions. Rooney comments: "What changes and what stays the same from one session to the next is always an impulse or concept that stays with a painting and drives it, from its very beginnings until the very end."

Ulli Rooney is represented by Fassbender Fine Art <http://fassbendergallery.com/artists/UlliRooney>.
